

All India Meritorious Scholarship Test 2017

About the test

The All India Meritorious Scholarship Test is organized by Buddy4Study India Foundation with a mission to give an opportunity to students to compete at national level and prove their talent and win scholarship based on merit. It also helps meritorious students with weak economic background to fund education under need based scholarships category. The application process as well as the exam is completely online.

Eligibility

All the students in India who belong to Class 11, 12 or have graduated from Class 12 in 2017 can appear for the exam.

Application Procedure

The application procedure involves the following steps:

- New applicants are required to register and make a payment of INR 249 as an application fee.
- The five-step application procedure involves personal details, academic details, introductory questions, final declaration and form submission.
- The applicant can now proceed with appearing for the exam online

Award Details

- Merit based scholarships will be decided based on test score and interviews
- Need cum merit based scholarships are for students with family income less than INR 4 Lakhs per annum. It will be decided based on test score, board marks and family income.
- First prize- Top 4 winners will get Rs 25000 each
- Second prize- Top 40 winners will get Rs 10,000 each
- Third prize- Top 80 winners will get Rs 8000 each
- Top 1000 Applicants with 80 percentiles and above will get certificates.
- Every participant will get a certificate and AIMST Fellow Tag.
- Every participant will get a free premium membership to India's largest scholarship portal- Buddy4Study.

Important Dates

- Registration date- 27 May 2017 onwards
- Application deadline- 15 August 2017 (tentative)
- Interview dates – will be announced after shortlist declaration
- Result announcement date - yet to be decided